Capas National Shrine
A 50-hectare land located in Western Capas, known as the former Capas Prisoners War Concentration Camp, Capas National Shrine is marked by a gigantic obelisk surpassing popular monuments and matching other skyscrapers common to Filipinos and tourists. Thus, this mighty pillar stands with pride to commemorate the heroism of the Filipino veterans during the World War II.

Bueno Hot Spring
Located in Sitio Danum Mapali, the natural hot spring is impounded in two concrete pools - about 2 to 3 feet in height. Take a trip from the Capas-Botolan road to Bueno Hot Spring or put your travel adventure to the next level and bike your way to the soothing hot spring believed to heal illnesses with temperatures 45-49.5 degrees centigrade and neutral pH level of 5.5 and a flow rate was recorded at 1/2 gal/min.

Capas Death March Marker
The site where about 60,000 soldiers crammed like sardines in closed box cars were unloaded to this train station and the start of the second phase of tragic Death March.

Capas Death March Monument
Built in an inverted V structure, it depicts the endurance and heroism of valiant soldiers, defenders of freedom and democracy. An emblem stands as a historical marker located three (3) kilometers from the town proper along the highway in Barangay Cutcut I.

MT. PINATUBO CRATER via Sta. Juliana
After its eruption in 1991, the world famous volcano has become a renowned tourist destination. The adventure begins in the quiet community of Sta. Juliana, Capas, Tarlac, where 4x4 vehicles are readily available for an hour long ride. After which, a hike to the crater presents an opportunity for everyone to enjoy the lahars landscapes along the river and a spectacular view of the volcano’s crater.

TAMBO LAKE
Visit a natural lagoon that’s accidentally created out of lahars, river water and agricultural land! Before Mt. Pinatubo eruption, Tambo Lake was formerly a stretch of rice paddies. Now a source of aquatic resource for Aetas living around it, it has been deemed as a potential site for still water paddling and fishing activities.

MT. TELAKAWA
Dubbed as the best thing along Crow Valley next to Mt. Pinatubo, Mt. Telakawa is the alternative mountain destination for visitors who are up to a more extreme hiking challenge. “Telakawa” literally means a pot upside down. The mountain, which proudly stands at 630 meters above the sea level, is named as such because of its shape.
